Mark Wexler

KEYNOTE SPEAKER · SOCIAL ENTREPRENEUR · KING'S COLLEGE LONDON

Not just opposing what's broken. Building what replaces it. Mark Wexler has spent twenty years doing exactly that, from the Amazon to the boardroom.

PASSION. PEOPLE. PROFIT.

NOT IN CONFLICT. IN SERVICE OF EACH OTHER. IN THAT ORDER. ALWAYS.

He builds what replaces the problem.

Mark Wexler is a social entrepreneur, keynote speaker, author, and Visiting Research Fellow at King's College London. He helped stop the trafficking of children in a region of the Peruvian Amazon, but not in the way you might think. He used a beverage company, built alongside indigenous communities, that made Brazil nuts worth more than forced labor ever could. He helped replicate that model in Amsterdam, where a restaurant in the city's Red Light District became one of the most talked-about social enterprises in Europe.

None of it was built alone. Over twenty years he has co-founded organizations across multiple countries using nearly every legal and capital structure available to a founder: nonprofits, for-profits, cooperatives, foundations, and social enterprises. He is the co-founder and CEO of Not For Sale, co-founder of REBBL and Just Business, and co-author of the forthcoming book The Art of Being a REBBL.

What audiences take away

Mark's talks don't make you feel inspired for a day. They give you a framework for building something that lasts. Every keynote is anchored in fieldwork, not borrowed theory, and delivered as a practical toolkit any founder, leader, or team can use on Monday morning.

Seven talks. One body of work.

- 01 The Art of Being a REBBL
Ten rules for becoming a changemaker.
- 02 Why Your People Leave
And why it's not about pay. The difference is design.
- 03 The Most Expensive Thing You're Not Paying Attention To
It's not in your dashboard. It's in your information flow.
- 04 The Door in the Dead End
How to build something real, using only what you have.
- 05 The Practice of Aggressive Humility
Admitting that what you built is not solving the problem.
- 06 Design for Intentional Information Flow
The right information beats the most information.
- 07 Freedom Requires Eternal Vigilance
Why lasting organizations never stop watching what they built.
